KERENSKY WINS IN CONTROVERSY WITH CONGRESS

Leaders Agree to Serve Nation in An Advisory Capacity Only

WILL SIT UNTIL OFFICIAL CONGRESS IS ELECTED

Government Grants Railroad Strikers An Increase—Walkout is Ended

(Associated Press Telegram) Petrograd, Monday, Oct. 8.—The provisional government apparently has won a complete victory over the preliminary parliament, an outgrowth of the democratic congress. M. Tsereteli, one of the leaders of the parliament, today informed Premier Kerensky that the parliament had withdrawn all its demands that the government be responsible to it and had acceded to the government's plan that the parliament act merely in an advisory legislative capacity. The parliament has been christened officially as the temporary council of the Russian republic and will sit until the constituent assembly convenes. It has been agreed that "the council shall have a right to put questions, but not demands; to initiate legislation on state questions and to deliberate on measures which the government lays before it."

The government will work out the whole program for the parliament, at the first sitting of which Premier Kerensky probably will personally lay before it the government's new program. At the suggestion of the government 120 members of the bourgeoisie will sit in the parliament. Premier Kerensky today officially informed those selected last Thursday of their appointment to the new coalition cabinet.

Mr. Masloff who was offered the ministry of agriculture, declined on the ground that the interests of the present party required his attention. M. Skobeleff, Kerensky's choice for minister of labor, has not decided whether he will accept.

The coalition cabinet selected in Petrograd last Thursday follows: Premier A. F. Kerensky; Minister of foreign affairs, M. I. Terestchenko; minister of the interior, M. Nikitin; minister of agriculture, M. Masloff; minister of labor, Mr. Skobeleff; minister of supplies, M. Prokovich; minister of finance, M. Bernaldsky; minister of religion, M. Kartasheff; minister of public welfare, M. Kishkin; minister of trade and industry, M. I. Konovalloff; state controller M. Smymovoff; minister of justice, M. Malynovitch; minister of education, M. Salaskin; president of the Ecumenical council, M. Tretyakoff; minister of war, General Verkhovsky; minister of marine, Admiral Verdevskiy.

The constitutional democratic party is represented by Kishkin, Konovalloff and Smymovoff. The railwaymen's strike has caused the government to decide to grant the increased wages demanded as from Sept. 1. This will necessitate an expenditure of 750,000,000 rubles annually, which the government has decided to meet by a rearrangement of railway rates. Simultaneously the government will promulgate a law providing for special food supplies for railwaymen.

A number of railway battalions have notified the government of their willingness to co-operate in ending the strike. Latest reports are that only the Moscow and Petrograd railway systems are affected by the strike and that the workmen on other lines are protesting against the strike.

U. S. PATROL SHIP FIRES ON ITALIAN U-BOAT; 2 KILLED

Washington, Oct. 8.—Full reports on the shelling of an Italian submarine by a United States patrol ship through a misunderstanding, resulting in the death of an officer and an enlisted man, are being awaited today by the navy department from Vice Admiral Sims commanding the American naval forces in European waters.

In reporting the incident to the department late yesterday, Admiral Sims stated that the patrol, while on duty at night in the war zone, recently, fired after the under sea craft had failed to answer recognition signals. Details were not given. Immediately upon receipt of Admiral Sims' message, Secretary Daniels sent a message to the Italian minister of marine expressing the deepest regret over the unfortunate occurrence, and tendering his own and the department's sympathy for the loss of life.

SAYS AMERICA IS FIGHTING FOR U. S.

Lord Northcliffe.

That this is not a commercial war and that the United States is not in it to "make the world safe for democracy," is declared by Lord Northcliffe, head of the British war mission, in a plain-spoken article, entitled "What America is Fighting For," appearing in a current magazine. The American people are fighting for the sole purpose of making the world safe for themselves, Northcliffe declares.

AKRON WOMAN IS KILLED IN OWN HOME BY UNKNOWN MAN

(Associated Press Telegram) Akron, Oct. 9.—Police today are investigating a double tragedy in the home of Mrs. Sarah Case, 36, here. Mrs. Case was shot to death by a man unknown to neighbors. The man then killed himself.

Neighbors of Mrs. Case saw a man enter her home about 8 o'clock this morning. Shortly afterwards a shot rang out and the man who had entered a few moments before dashed from the house. He hesitated a second and shot himself through the head.

Inside Mrs. Case lay dead, her little 10 year old son standing above her shrieking with terror. No one knew the name of the man who killed her. A knife found in his pocket bore the name of Jackson Taylor, Canton, O. He was about 40 years old. His body and that of Mrs. Case were taken to the morgue. The husband of the dead woman is Earl Case, a milkman.

CENTRAL POWERS TO MAKE ANOTHER PEACE OFFER TO ALLIES BERLIN PAPER ASSERTS

Amsterdam, Oct. 9.—Germany and Austro-Hungary have agreed to make another peace offer to the allies the Deutsche Tages Zeitung of Berlin says it learns on good authority. The offer will have as its basis no territorial aggrandizement, the surrender of Belgium and French territory, the renunciation of positive territorial acquisitions for payments in money and no indemnity on either side.

VETERAN OFFERS LIBERTY BONDS AS PRIZE TO PUPILS

(Associated Press Telegram) Chillicothe, Oct. 9.—Each boy and girl who finishes eighth grade work in Chillicothe public or parochial schools this school year will get a fifty dollar Liberty Bond next spring.

This unusual offer was announced today by Colonel Richard Enderlin, wealthy shoe manufacturer and coal operator of Chillicothe. He was a member of the 73d Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the Civil war and has a congressional medal for bravery on the field. His offer to Chillicothe school children will mean a $9,000 gift, school officials say.

MORE CLEVELAND UNITS ORDERED TO MONTGOMERY

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, Oct. 9.—Two more companies of Cleveland soldiers may be sent here for Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., this week. Company B, First Ohio Engineer regiment, will arrive here from Chicago tonight for a 48-hour furlough, after which it will leave for Montgomery. The men of Company B have been absent from Cleveland for 16 months, part of which time they have spent on the Mexican border. They have been stationed recently just outside of Chicago. Company D, Ninth, separate battalion, colored, also is expecting orders to entrain this week.

ARGENTINE IS NOT READY TO FOLLOW URUGUAY ACTION

Has Not Pledged Neutrality But Will Guard Own Interests

WILL BREAK RELATIONS IF REAL CAUSE ARISES

Uruguay Attempts to Force Argentine to Take Stand in the War

(Associated Press Telegram) Buenos Aires, Oct. 9.—The Argentine government is not prepared to follow the action of Uruguay in severing diplomatic relations with Germany, according to Foreign Minister Pueyrredon. Argentina has not pledged her neutrality, the foreign minister adds, but is attempting to safeguard her own interests. Relations with Germany will be broken if sufficient cause arises, but so long as Germany recognizes the Argentine flag and respects the nation and the people there probably will be no break.

Much surprise has been occasioned in political circles here by the following statement said to have been made by the foreign minister of Uruguay in urging the Uruguayan congress to break off relations with Germany:

"Uruguay, as a small nation between two great ones, must seek a balance of force to resist the possible hegemony of Argentina, with which nation we still have questions that are not settled definitely. This dispute consists in bringing closer together Brazil and the states of our connection, with the great states of the present conflict so that it will make impossible an attack on Uruguayan sovereignty without an immediate reversion throughout the American continent."

The unsettled questions between Uruguay and Argentina concern the river Plate. Argentina claims that the river belongs to her, while Uruguay insists that she owns one half. The dispute involves the ownership of the important island of Martin Garcia, now held by Argentina.

HEILFERRICH WILL RESIGN. (Associated Press Telegram) Amsterdam, Oct. 9.—There is growing displeasure in German parliamentary circles against Dr. Karl Helfferich, owing to Saturday's answer to the reichstag. GERMAN SPY NOW HELD IN PARIS HAD MILLIONS TO SPEND FOR DEBAUCHERY

Bolo Pasha.

Investigations conducted by Attorney General Morton E. Lewis of the activities in this country of Bolo Pasha have revealed the existence of a German corruption fund of almost incredible proportions which was employed by von Bernstorff and his associates in an attempt to debauch the press and influence congress. Complete details of the activities of Bolo Pasha will be sent to France through Ambassador Jusserand. These will be used against Bolo at the trial for his life before a court martial.

HEAVY RAINFALL AT NEW YORK PREVENTS THIRD GAME OF SERIES

(Associated Press Telegram) Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 9.—Rain—a heavy downpour that came out of the northwest with no promise of cessation—caused a postponement of the third act of the world's series drama between the New York Giants and Chicago White Sox today. Fifteen thousand spectators of the kind whose courage the two defeats of the National league champions did not diminish braved the stormy day and were a disappointed lot when shortly before one o'clock the official announcer megaphoned the news that the contest had been postponed until tomorrow.

The day's delay will give the White Sox's star pitcher—Eddie Cicotte—an additional day of rest but this will also be an advantage to the New York Giants who are anxious to have Salles start the third game against the Chicago invaders. Salles needs a three day rest to show to best advantage and today's postponement gives him the needed time to get into condition.

The games scheduled for today and tomorrow will be played at the Polo ground tomorrow and Thursday. Friday's game at Chicago will be moved to Saturday and in case a sixth game will be necessary it will be played at the Polo grounds as originally arranged on Monday, October 15.

RAILROADS NEED NOT PAY FRANCHISE TAX COURT HOLDS

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Oct. 9.—So-called "underlying companies"—corporations which build railroads and lease them to operating companies—are not subject to the franchise tax imposed on domestic corporations, according to a decision today by the Ohio supreme court, affirming findings of the Franklin county common pleas and appellate courts.

The suit brought by the state's legal representative five or six years ago to test the question of whether such companies should pay this tax, would have entailed the state treasury several million dollars had the decision of the high court been against the railroads instead of in their favor.

The action was brought against the Little Miami Railroad company, which leased its road to an operating company, but it also applied to some 30 other "underlying companies" in Ohio. The state asked for a judgment against the company for the tax and accrued interest for the past seven years. The railroads refused to pay the tax, and were sustained by today's decision.

AUSTRIAN NAVAL BASE DAMAGED BY ITALIAN PLANES

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Oct. 9.—Giant Caproni airplanes rained bombs last night upon the great Austrian naval base at Cattaro, starting fires among the buildings in the navy yards and causing damage to Austrian ships in the harbor. The Austrians met the attack with the greatest vigor but were unable to drive off the airplanes until nearly daylight when the Italians withdrew, without loss, to their own base. Advice received here from Rome indicate that the Italian attack was planned to forestall an Austrian naval demonstration being organized at Cattaro and Pola.

Official dispatches today report Austrian troops gathering in great force on the southern boundary in anticipation of the renewal of the Italian drive over the Bainsizza plateau.

The Italian government is preparing to lay before the allied conference, soon to assemble in Paris, a comprehensive plan for a great campaign against Leibach, regarded as the key to Austrian communications with Croatia and Serbia. If the allies approve and are willing to lend the necessary support in supply of coal, steel munitions and guns the Italian government will provide the troops.

LOANS TO ALLIES NOW NEARLY $3 BILLION. (Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Oct. 9.—Additional loans of $10,000,000 each to Great Britain and France were made today by the government. With this transaction, the total thus far loaned to the allies is $2,613,400,000.

ALLIES MAKE FURTHER HEAVY GAINS (Associated Press Telegram)

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 9.—The British have pushed back the Germans through Poelenpelde and are fighting in the eastern outskirts of the city about a large brewery.

Just north of Broodseinde, at Daisy wood, the Germans held out strongly. The British surrounded the wood and hot fighting followed.

At many places the French and British have advanced to a depth of 1,200 yards or more.

The British troops on Gravenstafel ridge advanced on to Passchendaele ridge and rested 1,000 yards southwest of the town of Passchendaele. The French crossed the Jansbeek and Brownbeek rivers.

The British met with strong resistance at Polderhoe-chateau, which they reached early in the advance. They were forced back a little by heavy machine gun fire. At the time of the latest reports they had again pushed forward.

The French crossed Jansbeek and Brownbeek rivers in the direction of Houthulst forest and at an early hour were reported fighting about Mangelare, some 1,500 yards beyond their original front lines. At 8:30 o'clock they had taken several hundred prisoners.

The latest meager reports received say the Germans are counter attacking heavily astride the Ypres-Roulers railway.

The British were sending back large numbers of prisoners at an early hour.

The combined attack of the French and British met with great success in the first few hours of fighting.

It is reported the British have achieved success in a small operation in the region of Renteul and Polderhoeck.

FRENCH TROOPS AID NEW OFFENSIVE (Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Oct. 9.—French troops on the Belgian front at half past five o'clock this morning attacked in conjunction with the British army the German positions south of the forest of Houthulst. The French official statement issued this afternoon says that the struggle is continuing and is developing favorably for the French arms.

The new British drive is being made in the same region as the attack on last Thursday, one of the most successful British efforts of the war. On that day the Germans were expelled from high ground along the ridge east of Ypres, giving the British dominating positions of great strategic importance.

The wedge in the German's line has been driven so deep that the high ground lost, their position has been made most unfavorable and another strategic retreat has been predicted. Recent reports from the British front however, told of heavy rains and deep mud conditions under which ordinarily a renewal of the attack would not be expected. The decision of the British staff to return to the attack so quickly may indicate a purpose to force a decision before the cold weather sets in, or before the Germans have recovered from the last blow, which appeared to have partly demoralized them.

The French official statement follows: "In Belgium this morning at 5:30 o'clock we attacked, in conjunction with the British armies, positions of the Germans south of Houthulst forest between Draibank and Weldendreef. The battle continues to develop favorably for us."

"On the Aisne front there was marked artillery activity, notably in the region of the Pantheon."

"In the Champagne we were successfully penetrating the German lines near the Butte of Tahure. After destroying the dugouts our forces returned with prisoners."

"On the right bank of the Meuse (Verden region) the artillery duel continues in the sector north of Chaume wood."

"There is nothing to report from the rest of the front."

RESUMED DRIVE QUICKLY. (Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Oct. 9.—Without regard to the highly unfavorable weather conditions prevailing and in a surprisingly short time after the successful British thrust of last week the British and French forces in Belgium have launched another heavy attack on the German lines.

The blow fell early today in the region east and northeast of Ypres where Crown Prince Rupprecht's lines had already been dangerously bent back by the previous British thrusts.

The British commander early reported satisfactory progress on all parts of the front of the attack.

ZEGITIS LOCATED IN BARBERTON; TO REPORT HERE TODAY

The draft board has not as yet received any instructions as to when the next contingent of soldiers will be sent to Camp Sherman near Chillicothe. There yet remains 15 per cent of the selective army to be sent to camp and it may be possible that only a part of them will be sent as the next contingent. This is not official but it has been discussed by the military authorities, as the camp is not quite complete for the full quota of soldiers who will occupy it.

The local board traced Mike Zegitis who had been examined and accepted in this city, to Barberton, where he secured employment. They wired him to report at draft headquarters and received a telegram from Zegitis that he would arrive some time today. He will be given his papers and sent on to Camp Sherman at once. No one will be returned in his place but he will count as a part of the next quota.

The board has furnished local police officers with the names and descriptions of all slackers and they are being rounded up as fast as located. Three have already been taken and traces of several others have been secured. There are twenty-one such men on the list and a reward of $50 has been offered by the government for each slacker arrested and taken to the nearest military headquarters.

FIRE GONG CLEARS 4TH ST. SCHOOL IN FORTY-FIVE SECONDS

Fire Prevention Day was fittingly observed this morning at the North Fourth street school building, of which Miss Bertie Jones is principal. At 9 o'clock the fire alarm was sounded and it is a matter of record that all the rooms were cleared and the pupils out in the yard in orderly form in three-quarters of a minute. Following this the pupils of the older grades, Nos. 6, 7, and 8, under Misses Jones, Avey, Booth and Cagney, were assembled in one of the rooms. Upon the blackboard had been drafted a synopsis of the governor's proclamation regarding Fire Prevention Day, a portrayal of a burning building, several phrases pointing the pupils to care and caution in preventing fires. Short talks were made to the children by Miss Lucy M. Connel and Walter W. Connel appropriate to the occasion.

BRITISH AND FRENCH GIVE HUNS NO REST; LAUNCH NEW ATTACK

(Continued From Page 1) mander-in-chief. The launching of an attack in concert with the British was announced and the favorable development of the attack reported. A considerable force of French troops took part in the beginning of the Flanders drive on July 31 and in the subsequent fighting that consolidated the ground won by them from a point northwest of Langer marcke as far north as Dixmude.

This section of the front remained comparatively quiet while the British to the south were renewing their drive last month. Apparently the time is now considered opportune for bringing the line to the north more nearly on the level with the advanced British front. The French attack today extended as far to the north as Houtholst forest, about five miles toward the coast from Bixschotte.

It had been pointed out that with the salient parts of the Passchendaele-Cheluvet ridge in their hands as the result of their success last week, the British were in an admirable position to push further east towards the Menin-Roulers railway line. This invaluable line of communication for the Germans between their bases in southwestern Belgium and northern France and their Belgian coast positions was already commanded by the British guns.

The renewed push is in the direction of this line which before this morning's attack began was about five and one-half miles distant from the point of the British wedge at Broodseinde.

Numerous indications have been found according to reports from the Flanders front that the German morale in this sector has notably deteriorated under the crushing blows of the British and their overwhelming artiller superiority. Lack of the former vigor in the German counterattacks and their comparative infrequency are cited as corroborative in this. This theory is thus suggested that despite the unfavorable weather conditions Field Marshal Haig decided to hit the Germans another hard blow while they were still staggering from the effects of their defeat last week, and thus shake still further their already precarious hold on western Belgium, possibly to the point where they would be compelled to let go.

YPRES REGION LAID TO WASTE BY HIGH EXPLOSIVE SHELLS

(Associated Press Telegram) British front in France and Belgium, Oct. 8.—A prosperous farming country before the war, the region east of Ypres, is now a desolate waste of large and deep shell craters. It has been the scene of much bitter and sanguinary fighting and the artillery fire has done its work.

Few sections of the western front have been laid waste as has this one. Farm buildings and villages have been swept away by the shells. But a few pieces of wall mark where buildings once stood. Grass and other green things have disappeared in the turning up of the earth by the innumerable exploding shells.

From Ypres out across the Westhoek bridge and over the site of which at one time was Zonnebeke, the British pushed last Thursday, the scene of demolition recalls the days of the battle of the Somme. The unprecedented havoc wrought on the Somme front had surpassed that which exists along the Ypres front.

More striking than all the rest were the scenes of death on every hand. German dead lay in great numbers over this ground which had not yet been cleared. At many places groups of Germans had been killed as they fought together and they rested as they had fallen. Shell holes at some places were choked with bodies.

The village of Zonnebeke is but a memory. Some shattered walls remain of the big church and in very few places there are marks of other public buildings, but the village as a whole has disappeared. The railway station of the Ypres-Roulers line, where for days the British and Germans battled fiercely at close quarters, is gone and there remains only a small concrete redoubt about which the Germans made their last stand.

The Ypres-Roulers railway, which for so long was under British gun fire and is now being hammered by the Germans, is nothing but a broken mound of earth. The rails have been twisted into knots and hurled here and there.

All the highways here and on other parts of the battlefield have been damaged severely. They are pitted here and there with shell holes. A thousand yards in front of Zonnebeke was Broodseinde ridge and the village with its famous cross roads where many Germans were killed recently by the British artillery fire. The British line is over the crest of this ridge on the eastern side. Broodseinde has gone the same way as Zonnebeke, Reutel, Gravenstafel, Passchendaele and many other hamlets.

The German redoubts and pill boxes in the Zonnebeke region mostly had been smashed by shell fire, although many of them put up a strong resistance. There was one great concrete and steel redoubt which had withstood the terrific fire to which it had been subjected. Its defenders had been driven out by the infantry in a pitched battle. The redoubt was 80 yards long and about 40 yards wide. The walls, which were of concrete reinforced with steel rails, were about five feet thick. The roof was made of sheet steel. The building contained six large rooms which would hold several hundred men. The whole country hereabouts was covered with similarly built defenses of varying sizes.

HEAVY RAINFALL AT NEW YORK

The atmosphere was decidedly colder, which was testified to unanimously by the shivering fans who stood outside the gates of the Polo ground all night. Rain fell early last night and then ceased, but before 4 o'clock it started again and for a time fell lively, making the well-trodden playing field heavy for the game.

Police officials and Polo-ground guards on duty at Brush stadium said the all-night crowd was the smallest that has waited up for a world's series game here in years. The first man to appear arrived at 6 o'clock last night. He was a little man, more than 60 years old, and took his place at the $2-ticket window in order to hold the place and sell it to the highest bidder when the sale of seats to the lower stand began. The line grew slowly and at midnight there were perhaps a hundred boys and men stretched along the fence. Some slept peacefully and others discussed the chances of the Giant's to even up the series. In this line stood a soldier with his service overcoat buttoned up around his neck.

The first dollar bleacher line was a young boy who put in an appearance at 6:30 last night. He did not have a dollar to see the game, but hoped to sell his place for the price of admission and a little extra to buy some lunch. There were a few more in this line than in the two dollar section, but when the rain came in the early hours of the morning most of those who had stood for hours lost heart, sought shelter, or went to the rhomes. The old man and the boy, however, stuck to their places and covered themselves with newspapers to protect them from the rain.

With the first streaks of dawn and while the rain was still falling lightly the lines began to grow. Fans began to tumble from "L" trains and soon all arteries of travel led to the Polo grounds. When the gates to the lower grandstand and bleachers were opened at 9 o'clock the lines stretched up and down the streets and around the grounds.

The shivering fans who stood in the cold all night were rewarded by first-choice of seats in the unreserved sections. All seats in the upper pavilion had been reserved and were sold several days ago. This left about 27,000 seats to be sold on the basis of first-come, first-served, when the gates opened today. The management insisted that each purchaser of an unreserved seat go directly into the grounds. This arrangement was strictly adhered to and gave every patron of the club an equal chance.

Despite every precaution taken by President Hempstead, reserved-seat tickets were to be had for special prices at the grounds and at the prominent hotels. Last night $35 was asked for one set of tickets to the three games, but prices fell today, due to the damp weather.

While the betting odds favored the American League champions all the way from 2 to 1 to 5 to 1, supporters of the Giant still were outwardly optimistic. The local rooters, while admitting the superiority of White Sox in the first two games, insisted that McGraw's men have not yet displayed their real baseball ability.

Outside of the main question as to whether the Giant can stage a spectacular comeback, the followers of the national pastime devoted the rest of their speculations as to the rival pitchers. In the absence of official announcement.

New York rooters admitted today that the Giant must win the third game to have a look-in at the championship. To lose this game, they agreed, would mean that the world's series title would probably go west for the first time since 1909 when Pittsburgh captured the series from Detroit.

Delving into the records of past games does not hold out any encouragement to the followers of the National League. These records show that since world's series have been played under the rules laid down by the national commission no team that lost the first two games ever came through to the winner of baseball's classic.

Again, should New York win the third game the records would still be against the Giants, for in the last 12 years no team that has captured only one of the first three games ever won the championship. The New York fan, however, pin their faith to the uncertainty of the game and feel this is just as good a year to upset the law of averages as any other.

Aside from the games won, Chicago has a decided advantage in the pitching. Manager Rowland's men have now batted against McGraw's best bats, pitchers who the New York manager expected would at the very least break even with the American Leaguers on their own grounds. The White Sox tapped Salles sufficiently to win and hammered Schlupp, the New York star, out of the box. Both are left-handers. McGraw still has Rube Benton, another southpaw, but he may decide to try Pol Perritt, his best right-hand fliinger, to stop Comiskey's team.

Chicago's pitching has been up to Manager Rowland's expectations. Cicotte and Faber, the White Sox only two offerings so far, came through with victories. Neither was hit very hard and both now have the confidence born of victory. Rowland may decide to pitch these two men again before taking a chance on Russell, or on one of his other twirlers.

New York fans, however, do not believe that Cicotte and Faber can duplicate their performance before a larger crowd at the Polo grounds. Heine Zimmerman and Benny Kauff, always dangerous men at the bat, have not yet broken into the hit column and the ardent supporters of the Giants expect these two burly batsmen to come through in fine style before the series is over. Fletcher is another good hitter who has not showed his real form.

During the morning, special trains brought in hundreds of rooters from nearby cities. The famous "royal rooters" of Boston were in one delegation. Having no team of their own to root for this year on account of the fickleness of baseball fortune, the Boston enthusiasts cheered for the White Sox.

Other special trains came from western cities. The 240 Woodlawn Bards, for years the chief rooters of the White Sox, arrived with the team last night.

OHIO SERIES IS SHIFTED TO CINCINNATI TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, Oct. 9.—The Cleveland Indians of the American League and Cincinnati Reds of the National League, left this morning for Cincinnati where they will clash today in the fifth game of the series. The Red shave won three of the four games played. If they are victors today they will have won the major league championship of Ohio. It is probable Caveleskie will pitch today for the Indians and Schneider for the Reds. Immediately following the close of the series, the teams will play an exhibition game at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe.

AUTO DRIVER HELD FOR VIOLATION OF STATE AUTO LAWS

F. E. Woods, of near Alexandria, was arrested last evening about 7 o'clock on the charge of operating an automobile while in an intoxicated condition, after he had collided with the machine of Michael Pichael of Johnstown, in the Granville road. The latter, accompanied by Fred Mullin, had stopped to light the tail-lights of their auto and the latter was just stepping into the car when it was struck by Woods. Mullin was precipitated to the roadway and suffered a bad gash in the right leg, and an examination at the Newark Sanitarium, where he was taken in an ambulance, developed a small bone broken near the knee. Woods had a hearing before Mayor R. C. Bigbee today and his case was continued until next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

VAUGHN ARRESTED; FAILED TO APPEAR FOR DRAFT EXAMS

Officers Hurlbaugh, Donnelly and Gorman are proving veritable sleuths in picking up slackers and deserters from the national army, having arrested their fourth man last evening. The fellow was Jesse Vaughn, and he was located at a boarding and rooming house in South Fifth street. He will be taken to the Columbus barracks tomorrow and turned over to the military authorities and the local officers will receive a reward of $50. Vaughn was registered in this city but failed to appear for examination. He claims his home as Chattanooga, Tenn.

You Get Better Cough Syrup by Making it at Home

What's more, you save about $2 by it. Easily made and costs little.

You'll never really know what a fine cough syrup you can make until you prepare this famous home-made remedy. You not only save $2 as compared with the ready-made kind, but you will also have a more effective and dependable remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) from any good drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Here you have a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough syrup that money can buy—at a cost of only 65 cents or less. It never spoils.

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting cough syrup have caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relief comes almost immediately. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, bronchitis, croup and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept any imitation else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

If your skin itches just use Resinol

No remedy can honestly promise to heal every case of eczema or similar skin ailment. But Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap, gives such instant relief from the itching and burning, and so generally succeeds in clearing the eruption away for good, that it is the standard skin treatment of thousands and thousands of physicians. Why not try it?

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

PROSECUTOR SAYS PIERSOL WAS SEEN NEAR KEET MANSION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Marshall, Mo., Oct. 9.—Such unexpected progress marked the selection of the 30 men of the panel from which the jury to hear the evidence in the trial of Claude J. Piersol, charged with kidnaping baby Lloyd Keet, is to be chosen, that it was expected presentation of testimony by the state would begin this afternoon.

J. Holland Keet, the infant's father, will be the prosecution's first witness, it was indicated. The body of the baby was found in a well on a deserted homestead near Springfield a few days after it was kidnaped from its parents' home there the night of May 30, last.

Mrs. Keet and two nurses who were asleep in the room from which little Lloyd was abducted will follow Mr. Keet on the witness stand.

Paul N. O'Day, prosecutor, in his opening statement today, declared that Piersol had admitted to Samuel Allender, chief of detectives at St. Louis, and to Mr. O'Day, that the elaborate story he had told when first arrested of being an agent of the German government was pure invention.

Mr. O'Day after reviewing the history of the disappearance and subsequent finding of the infant's body in a cistern near Springfield, asserted that Piersol for two or three years had been "giving serious thought to all the particulars which must be considered in bringing to a successful consummation a crime of kidnaping."

The prosecutor stated that witnesses would show that a short time before the kidnaping of the Keet baby, Piersol and his alleged band had frequently been seen in the neighborhood of the Keet residence; that all of them were armed and carried masks, and frequently stationed an automobile at a convenient point nearby.

Mr. O'Day declared the testimony would indicate that Taylor B. Adams who also is charged with the Keet kidnaping, had approached persons in Greene and Christian counties offering them sums of money to engage in kidnaping projects. These persons would be used as witnesses, the state's attorney declared.

The testimony would indicate, Mr. O'Day continued, that about the 9th or 10th of March, Piersol and his companions were stationed in automobiles across the street from the Keet home and that on being asked what their purpose was, that Piersol replied: "By — we are going to get the Keet baby."

The prosecutor declared that on the day the baby was stolen, Piersol and Cletus Adams went to the Keet home to deliver a package addressed to W. R. Wolfe, "well knowing that this was the Keet home inasmuch as Cletus had delivered a package to the same place the day before."

The statement related that two cars were driven to the country club where the parents of the Keet baby were attending a ball and that the driver of one of the cars inquired of the ground-keeper as to the presence of Keet. On being ordered off the premises the two cars drove to within a block of the Keet residence, which was nearby, and stopped. The ground-keeper would testify, O'Day declared, that the man who drove one of the cars was Piersol.

The opening statement then dealt with a letter which was seized by the authorities when Taylor B. Adams was arrested in Kansas City. "This remarkable letter," the prosecutor continued, "was written by Piersol to Adams on the first day of June, two days after Lloyd Keet was kidnaped. The letter begins with this statement: 'I made my deal that I was talking to you about before you left.'"

The contention of the state is that the initial sentence in this letter referred to the abduction of baby Lloyd Keet.

At the outset of this case, it appears that when this defendant sought to approach someone to go into his unlawful schemes, he first put the proposition that they would kidnap a man who was the representative of the government and that he, Piersol, was a representative of the German government, and that the German government would pay them a good sum for holding this Englishman so that he would not be able to bid on a "lumber deal," which might interfere with German representatives' bids. Piersol wrote the letters received by Keet, the father of the kidnaped baby, as will be proved by experts in handwriting.

RESERVATIONS FOR C. OF C. LUNCHEON ARE BEING MADE

Nearly a hundred reservations already have been made for the Chamber of Commerce luncheon-smoker in Knights of Pythias hall, Thursday night, which will be addressed by J. Sloot Fassett of New York state, on the Liberty loan, and Ellis L. Howland of the New York Journal of Commerce, on "American Industry and the War."

W. C. Melz, chairman of the Liberty loan committee for Licking county, in a letter from the advertising committee in charge of the state work of the Liberty loan campaign, is assured that Mr. Fassett is one of the strong speakers of the country. The letter says: "It will probably be of interest to you to know that the Hon. J. Sloot Fassett was a member of congress from the state of New York for three terms, and is a former secretary of the Republican National committee. He is a political economist of note, a prominent lawyer and banker, and former proprietor of the Elmira (N. Y.) Daily Advertiser. He has extensive banking, farming, and mining interests in the west."

Mr. Howland comes under the auspices of the industrial conservation movement, and is speaking in the largest cities of the country on that subject. The luncheon will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Fellowship and patriotic songs will be a feature and invitations have been extended to leading bankers of the county and officers of chambers of commerce of Zanesville, Coshocton, Mt. Vernon, and other nearby cities to be present.

MUSIC

"Persons who are surprised at the idea of training soldiers to sing simply have no understanding of the part that singing plays in this war," said Alexander J. Hemphill, chairman of the recruiting committee of the Mayor's Committee on National Defense, in discussing the part which the soldiers took in the Song and Light Festival. "At the start of the war music was neglected. It was known as an historical fact that winning soldiers always sang, that the crusaders marched singing to Palestine, and that William the Conqueror's hosts sang the song of Roland before the Battle of Hastings. But the psychological reasons for soldiers singing, the necessity of it for the sake of morale, was forgotten in 1914. Our allies in France long ago remedied that error."

In the same fashion Pershing's men are being ordered to "sing, sing as the French do." Pershing has seen what a vast difference in morale there is between regiments that come silent from the trenches and those that come singing. One of the hardest things our men had to learn in training in France was to beat their teachers, the Chasseurs Alpins, at singing. That is why we are glad to see the Community Chorus training our men to sing now. Are you a member of the Civic Chorus society? Rehearsal tonight at Taylor Hall at 7:30 o'clock.

The Women's Music club held its first regular session for the winter yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Miss Hagmeir in West Church street.

A program of two piano compositions was admirably given by the hostess and Miss Larkin.

The second meeting will be held Thursday, October 25 at the studio of Miss King in Second street.

Miss Larkin and Miss Hagmeir will give a two piano recital this evening at the home of Miss Hagmeir, repeating the program of yesterday given before the Women's Music club.

DISTRIBUTION COSTS.

It is with a feeling almost of despair that the consumer views the steady advance of food products and he wonders where it will all end. He has vague hopes that the government may be able to do something by price fixing. He is forced to recognize that it is beyond any power of government to control economic conditions. In the long run prices are governed by natural causes and by the habits of the people. What can the individual consumer do against these conditions, to change the operation of the vast machine by which his food is supplied?

At least he does well to know where the trouble lies, and if this information could become general, public sentiment would effect changes. At least there are many excellent ideas in the reports of the economists and scientists and commissions that have investigated the subject. These should not be allowed to lie forgotten on dusty library shelves.

Astonishing stories of the break down of the distribution system can be found through inquiry in any market, by comparing the prices obtained by the farmers and those secured by the retailers. At Chicago for instance, they tell of car loads of melons shipped from Oklahoma for which the producer got but $52.50 per car. When they got to the consumer, the aggregate paid out for the individual melon was $630. per car. Where on earth did the balance go? It seems preposterous that such an enormous amount has to be spent merely for distribution.

On the average run of food sold in New York, the New York Food Investigating Commission said the producer gets 40 per cent of the price paid by the consumer. That is little enough. Probably the average proportion received by farmers all over the country is less than that. The commission claims that New York City wastes $70,000,000 annually in antiquated and unscientific systems of marketing and distribution. What then must be the entire waste of the United States?

Our plans for handling provisions at shipping and distributing points were built in a day of small things, when present conditions were not foreseen. Now that they are shipping over all the country, the inconveniences cost money and add expense.

It seems mighty queer to the politicians that the government is securing the services of prominent business men for its great war tasks, when there are so many unsuccessful men who need the jobs and would work cheap.

It may not be possible to prevent certain motorists from speeding, but at least when they go out the first alarm might be rung so that the people who desire to save their necks can get indoors.

Probably the Germans think that when that reward of $100 has been paid for capture of the first American, all the other Americans will get scared and run for home.

New York City has to elect a mayor again this fall, and all that is wanted is to find a man who will strictly pledge himself not to give the city good government.

Another popular method of camouflage is putting those big fat apples on the top of the barrel and little means wizened nubbins down in the middle.

Anti-war uprisings are being fomented, but the uprisers haven't uprisen yet except to run when the police come.

TOWN LOYALTY.

A tremendous improvement has been made in school life during recent years by cultivating what is called School Spirit. You didn't hear much about it in the school of 20 years ago. But in the thoroughly modern school, you hear the idea constantly emphasized.

The pupils are brought up to see that they are not merely individual and scattered units, but are working toward certain ends that they all have in common. If they want their ball team to succeed, they can't do it merely by remaining indifferent or standing off and criticizing. In the same way the pupils are taught to back up whatever enterprises the school starts. They learn that if the school is to have a good reputation and get the facilities it needs, the pupils must consider not their own pleasure alone, but must work and study for the benefit of the school as a whole.

When that spirit is promoted, a school acquires a wide reputation. It is successful both in athletics and scholarship. Now the question rises, why can't this idea be applied to town life? These boys and girls, that have been taught to stand by their school and its enterprises, why should not they come out and apply the idea to standing by town enterprises?

The first element in town spirit is supporting all our home enterprises. One phase of that is not regarded by all as it should be, is standing by the home stores. When a man starts a retail business in a town, he adds to its facilities for comfortable living. It is for everyone's advantage to have him succeed.

But he can't, unless we give him the preference over the merchants of other cities. A town in which the spirit of home loyalty prevails always has the air of prosperity. It is always growing, and always it appears a little better, brighter, and more prosperous than its actual census figures warrant.

WHEAT AND ITS PRODUCTS.

(Columbus Sunday Dispatch.)
A farmer sold his wheat the other day for $653.01. Then he got prices on flour, shorts, and bran, just to see what he would have to pay for the exact amount that would be produced out of the wheat he sold. He found that to obtain the products of his wheat, he would have to pay $2,107.03. In other words, the consumer is today paying the latter sum for the stuff which the farmer sold for $653.01.

The facts are not cited for the purpose of fixing the blame, if blame there is. They are stated simply as a matter of interest, and to call attention to the truth that there is something wrong, somewhere, in the matter of manufacture or distribution or profit. There is too great a discrepancy between what the consumer pays for the finished product and what the producer receives for the raw material.

It is in keeping with the increased cost of clothing when wool advances in price—but it is wrong some way. There are three or four pounds of wool in a suit of clothes. When wool increases ten cents a pound, a suit of clothes increases about ten dollars. The actual cost of the four pounds of wool goes up, forty or fifty cents, and the price of the suit of clothes goes up ten or twelve dollars.

And it is the same way all along the line. Sugar advances a cent or two a pound, and the products containing sugar are advanced twenty-five cents a pound. Hogs sell for ten cents a pound more than formerly, and bacon for twenty to thirty cents a pound more. A pound of raw cotton is no selling for twelve cents more than it used to, and a pound of cotton cloth for fifty cents more than it used to sell for. The comparisons can be continued indefinitely.

Did You Know
That "postoffice" came to be so named from the way in which letters were formerly carried? Dispatches, known as "posts" were carried to certain points by riders who, stopping only to change horses, proceeded on their way. The points where relays of horses were waiting were called "offices," hence, the term "postoffice."

THE WRECK OF A GERMAN U-BOAT

(By Gertrude Lynch.)
Spec. Cor. of The Vigilant.

Paris, Sept. 5.—I am the first and only American allowed to visit a German U-boat, lying captive upon an isolated strip of the Channel Coast.

To reach this frightful thing, our party of journalists walked a half mile of beach along which we were repeatedly challenged by English and Belgian sentinels. Just at the side of a headland which shut off the view of Calais harbor the monster lay—a sinister, menacing object, seeming to typify the very essence of the Prussian soul, breathing its death-agony the spirit of annihilation.

This U-boat 61 had been crippled by a blow from a French torpedo and had finally been forced to run ashore—to the custody of a French commandant.

The sea-air still held the odor of the petrol by which all that might be useful had been destroyed by its crew—electrical apparatus, microphone, telephone, periscope, all personal belongings. About the beach were scattered thousands of pieces of metal, twisted and torn, while the aft part of the U-boat, scarred and blackened, seems like the half-dead body of a leviathan.

Eighteen torpedoes were found, six were missing. At first the captain of the U-boat stated that he had been ten days away from his base and had sailed about the coast of Scotland. The French commandant said he did not believe him, and the German officer made a later statement in which he told how he had come the night before from Zeebrugge, the base.

The night before—and six torpedoes were missing!

It is a Horror as it lies on 'the Calais sand. It seems to cry out to its companions to avenge its loss, to do the awful deeds it has left undone. The sea-birds fly about it, the waves break on the shingle—and we who stand and stare seem to hear the voices of the little children it has murdered.

UNENDURABLE FORTIES.

(New York Sun.)
Time was when the middle forties seemed an admirable age. One could be old enough to have learned a little of contentment; young enough to undertake new things. It was an age to take up golf seriously without giving up tennis. It was an age to reread Dickens, even to undertake Trollope, and still to watch the coming magazines.

Now it's a sad age—too old to be of real use, too old even to be wanted, but young enough to feel the pull. The government doesn't ask you, or if it does it rejects you.

Blessed and burdened with a wife and family, the man of the middle forties can't even ask to do the things he dreams of doing. Single, he learns of a blood pressure he never knew he had. Too old to marry, with the parade of the young to stand contented on the sidewalk and watch he lags along, hopeful that he will be let carry water and ashamed to be seen doing it.

Days like these one should be 20, and well in it, or 70, and certainly not of it.

One hundred and twenty-five thousand feet of space has already been bought for exhibits. Two thousand head of the leading cattle breeds will be shown. The great Holstein bull that D. W. Spirit of the Press

Not a Cheap Thing.
In the heat of this war, citizenship everywhere has been tried as in a furnace. In the United States, as elsewhere, citizenship has been newly evaluated if not newly defined. Like patriotism it has again come to be not a cheap thing to be lightly assumed or cast aside, but as in other great periods of the world's history, it has been seen and recognized as a vital allegiance, a personal alignment, a pledge, binding the component individuals of a nation, in effect, to see the good of each by working for the good of all.
—Christian Science Monitor.

Absolutely Not Intended.
The Literary Digest notes that the parades in honor of the contingents of conscripted men must in no wise be regarded as exalting this branch of Uncle Sam's boys at the expense of the regular army and the National Guard. Assuredly not. What could dream of such a thing? Surely the regulars and the guardsmen will not be small enough to resent the honors paid to the conscripted men as in any way involving a slight to them. The American volunteer soldier will never lose his place in the hearts of his countrymen, nor his bright page in the history of his country.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Organized for Destruction.
Free speech means one thing in time of war and another in time of peace, but neither in war nor peace does it mean incitement to destruction and murder. It is to be observed that the I. W. W. is not constructive, like a labor union; its sole policy is to tear down, with the hope that in the ensuing scramble the most lawless element will secure the lion's share of what is left. This is an intolerable combination, and it is to be feared that the timidity of Washington has given it a strength it should never have possessed.—Wall Street Journal.

United States and Japan.
Ellis Root says he is convinced of the sincerity of the friendship of Japan for the United States. If the importance of the war did not overshadow it, the present rapprochement between the United States and Japan would be looked upon as one of the most significant developments in the history of the two nations.—Buffalo Commercial.

By married life in her own home in Delaware, O., she returned to her father's home to be under the care of her devoted mother. Here, for six months, she lived, suffered and smiled in the most cheerful and patient manner, until she peacefully passed to the better land. Mrs. Comisford brought great blessing to this world. She appreciated the presence and devotion of her husband, the kindness of her parents, and the unceasing attention of her host of friends. Much sunshine and good cheer have gone out of the world since the dear disease has carried Beatrice beyond the sunset of life. But with the sweet spirit of Christian devotion she greeted the open door that admitted her to her heavenly home. No one could be more universally admired, loved and missed than she. At the age of twenty-one years her happy life ended. As an earnest Christian, efficient bookkeeper, faithful office clerk and loving young wife, she brought cheerfulness and joy. These qualities never failed her. In the midst of great discomfort she smiled. She will be held not only in the highest esteem, but in sweetest memory and in affection that will not fade.

Our Boys and Girls

The greatest problem that confronts a mother in planning children's birthday party is not what form of entertainment, but in nine cases out of ten—what to do with the bigger boys. In any gathering of little boys and girls ranging up to 7 or 8 years, there are always a few young lads overcharged with animal spirits who "cut-up" to the boundless terror of the little girls in their dainty ruffles and ribbons. Even boys who are models of behavior on other occasions are apt to catch the contagion this birthday party restlessness, and it sometimes takes almost all pleasure out of giving birthday parties.

An optimist is merely a man who doesn't believe his warm friends are all dead.

Mechanical Genius.

A celebrated engineer being examined at a trial, where both the judge and counsel tried in vain to browbeat him, made use of the expression in his evidence, "The creative power of a mechanic," on which the judge rather tartly asked him what he meant by "the creative power of a mechanic."

"Why, my lord," said the engineer, "I mean that power which enables a man to convert a horse's tail into a judge's wig."

Ancient Beauty Culture.

We hear a great deal about beauty culture and are somewhat inclined to think it is a new art, at least in some of its developments. The truth is it is not a new art at all, but one, as old as the hills, at least nearly as old as Eve.

One of the instruments used by the professors of beauty culture is the face mask, whole or partial, to be worn during sleep as a preventive of wrinkles. It is said with apparatus for the eyes, nostrils and mouth. A similar apparatus under different forms was well known to the ancients and barbaric times intervening did not allow it to be forgotten. Beauties of the Renaissance period took it up, and we find Marguerite Valois, the good queen Margot, wearing a mask at night in order to preserve her beauty.

We read also that her husband, Henry IV, objected to it. After she was divorced from him, and when Marie de Medicis had taken her place, did she continue the practice. Probably as this royal Marguerite was not only a coquette when young, but lived to be a very old coquette. Baths enter largely into the system of modern cultivators of physical beauty, but these beautifying baths consist seldom of pure water. Ingredients are put into them which are supposed to have a more or less marvelous effect on the skin.

There is nothing new in this practice any more than in the mask system. Roman ladies, under the Caesars, bathed in water redolent with costly compounds. Some bathed in asses' milk diluted in water. Nero's wife used to sleep with compresses of this milk on her cheeks—such was the belief then in its beautifying powers.

Every Day Etiquette

"If I come home from an evening entertainment at 9 o'clock is it all right to ask my escort to come in for awhile?" inquired Mildred.

"As early as 9 would be quite proper for you to ask the young man in for a brief call," answered her aunt.

America's War Answer our SECOND LIBERTY LOAN

LOOSEN your purse strings, sons and daughters of Columbia, and take the bonds of the Second Liberty Loan. Buy them till the pinch of buying brings to your heart the glow of a good investment made and a good deed done. Buy U. S. Government Liberty Bonds. If you have one, buy another, and sell two more bonds to two other good Americans.

The Bonds are your answer, our answer, the one answer we, as undivided people, loyal to the cause of human rights can make to the World War.

The eyes and ears of the world are strained for our answer. The eyes and ears of our enemy, more eagerly than the eyes and ears of our allies.

Strike the answer home that there may be no doubt of the answer.

Our young manhood answers as our boys go to the firing line; our farmers answer in food for our fighting men; our manufacturers answer in shoes and uniforms, gas masks, big guns, little guns, powder, shot and shell; our shipyards in food ships and fighting ships. But they speak the answers of individuals. The Liberty Loan speaks for our whole people. Let our answer tell friend and foe, that we know we are fighting for human rights, and stand behind our demand:

"The World Must Be Made Safe For Democracy"

Put every dollar you can spare into a Liberty Bond. Never before could your dollar buy so much. It buys safety for your country, your homes and your children, now and for years to come. It buys life and liberty without taking a cent away from you. It fights for us, and pays for the privilege of fighting. It fulfills a duty which has the combined rewards of a good deed and a good investment.

For the Second Liberty Loan is the best investment in the world to-day. A Liberty Bond is money which pays you a secured income for your home and family. Always safe as gold, always worth its face value, every Liberty Bond, with the end of the war, is sure to be held at a premium.

You men and women with a few dollars to invest can put them to fighting for your homes at the same time they bring you an income.

You may buy Liberty Bonds as small as $50 and pay for them by instalments.

Go to the nearest bank, the nearest post office, the nearest department store, or send to the United States Department for a Liberty Bond.

Other lands of Democracy are making their fight and sacrifices for Democracy.

The hour of America's opportunity and privilege strikes. Lend your utmost to your government. Buy her Bonds. Buy, and in buying strike our answer home, that the world may know beyond a doubt that America's War Answer, "Makes the World Safe for Democracy."

AMUSEMENTS AUDITORIUM.
Tonight.
Even among the stars of the screen, most of them are small women. Vivian Martin stands out as being particularly petite, if one can stand out by being small. But it is only in the matter of stature that the charming little lady is small, for in "Miss Little Optimist" yesterday she delighted hundreds of Auditorium patrons. In the matter of histrionic ability, and with regard to the following and popularity that are rewards of ability, Miss Martin is among the giants of picturedom, and is growing bigger every day. In "Miss Little Optimist," the latest of her Paramount pictures, which is seen at the Auditorium today for the last time, she adds hundreds of new friends. For real charm, as well as that intangible quality we call "personality" for want of a better term, there are few screen stars that are her equal and if you see her in "Miss Little Optimist" you will be of the same opinion as the writer. The story of this photoplay deals with the life and adventures of a little girl "newbie" who, because of her cheerfulness and smile, wins many friends. In her own way she is able to befriend a starving musician and, like all good deeds, this in time brings reward. You will like Miss Martin in this wonderful Paramount feature, so see one of the last displays today.
Victorious against the attack of the enemy. Mrs. Vernon Castle as the heroine of the 15th and last chapter of "Patria," is asked how she did it. "By being prepared" she answers.
This chapter is to be a feature at the Auditorium theatre tomorrow. In it Villa and General Torreon agree upon a concerted attack on the United States to repel which Patria has been spending the $100,000,000 preparedness fund left for this purpose by her ancestors. With boisterous hilarity and boasts to the death of Patria and all Gringos, the final orders are given and the troops start for the battle field.
This is the last episode.
Howe's Pictures.
Whether or not one cares for the movies as represented by the dramatic variety, everybody does care for Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival because of its distinction, dignity and difference from posed films. Mr. Howe's exhibition which comes to the Auditorium soon, can always be depended upon to broaden one's mental outlook, but his new production promises to do so in a peculiarly vital and timely way. For it conducts spectators aboard our super-dreadnaughts, stripped for action somewhere in the Atlantic, and so gives every spectator a new and fresh conception of the activities, discipline and maneuvers of our "sentinels of the deep" under the stress of war. The films radiate the atmosphere of grim realities, not of pomp or pageantry, and every foot teems with vital interest to every true American. Then, too, the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, contributes many stirring scenes from the strenuous and varied training given the splendid corps of "middies." Auditorium Notes.

Douglas Fairbank's next Artercraft feature to be seen here will be "The Man From Painted Post," a thrilling photoplay of cattle rustling days in Wyoming, when human life was held cheap. Jack Pickford and Louise Hull will be seen next in "The Ghost House."
"Double Crossed" with Pauline Frederick as the star, comes soon.
"The Woman God Forgot" with Geraldine Farrar as the star, will mark an epoch in the art of cinematographic effort of the twentieth century and soon will be seen in Newark.
Herbert Brenon's thriller, "The Lone Wolf," has been booked by Mgr. Fenberg for an early showing here. The success of the production at the Broadway theatre, N. Y., at dollar prices it withstood the extreme heat wave, that at the time was sweeping the entire country, and its equal triumph at the Studebaker theatre in Chicago are jointly responsible for the Newark booking.
Pathe News failed to reach the Auditorium yesterday, having lost connections somewhere enroute. Via express, it will be seen today sure.
Wallace Reid, who comes to the Auditorium tomorrow in "The Hostage" first attracted attention among screen patrons in "The Birth of a Nation."
William Fox offers at the Auditorium for One Day Only, the popular screen star, William Farnum, who is seen in a story that will appeal to all, "American Methods," adapted from the novel "The Iron Master." This is a super-De Luxe masterpiece and should attract crowded houses to this popular playhouse.
Thursday in connection with the regular program, Mgr. Fenberg will offer as an added feature "Burning Europe" in which the present world war is seen. The Italian battle front. Many of the most important battle scenes are shown—also the scaling of steep mountain heights; cutting of the enemy's entanglements—mining the harbors; sentry duty at an altitude of 10,000 feet.
Tomorrow and Thursday another popular Paramount screen star is to be seen at the Auditorium in the person of Wallace Reid who is seen in a war picture without a horror called "The Hostage." With this feature is seen the last Episode of "Patria" with Vernon Castle. This episode is said to be a most thrilling one and the thrills are some that those who see it will remember.
ALHAMBRA.
Tonight.
William Russell, star of the new Mutual-American production, "The Masked Heart," long disputed the title of heavyweight amateur boxing champion of the United States with Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia.
Wednesday and Thursday.
When Kate Jordan wrote the famous novel, "Creeping Tides," she opened a best seller. And when World-Pictures turned the book into a photodrama called "Tides of Fate," they made one of the best sort of entertaining pictures. And now the Alhambra theatre will have the pleasure of presenting charming and popular Alexandra Carlisle in the stellar role in this production on Wednesday and Thursday. To those movie fans who are not familiar with the novel it may be stated that "Tides of Fate" is a story of English and American life with a sorely tried heroine who experiences many startling adventures in her development from care-free, careless girlhood to mature womanhood. In the course of her adventures she has a remarkable escape from prison where she is incarcerated under the suspicion of being an accomplice of her counterfeiting husband. She also has thrilling experiences in America where she meets an old lover of her's and again meets her rascally husband. In the end she finds happiness at last. Miss Carlisle is supported in this production by an exceptionally able and clever cast. The whole production is notable for the beauty of its scenes and the speed with which it moves.

LYRIC.
Robert Doyle Welcome.
The Robert Doyle company opened its engagement at the Lyric Theatre to a large and appreciative gathering, Monday matinee. The company was given a warm reception in their opening play "Keeping an eye on Hubby."
They have a one-week engagement here and promises some excellent plays.
The opening play, "Keeping an eye on Hubby," is a pretentious offering, not often seen in repertoire production. Not only was the play selected good, but it was well presented, both with regard to the company and a scenic investment.
The costumes an scenery were in keeping with the company, being much better than generally seen in traveling stock.
Matinees will be played every day and the price for matinees will be 10 cents to all. The play listed for Tuesday will be Lens Rivers.

AMERICAN OFFICERS TAKE PART IN ATTACK ON CROWN PRINCE'S FORCES

Form an Actual Part of the French Fighting Units That Took German Positions After They Had Been Pulverized by Artillery Fire—Although Men Dropped on Every Side Not an American Was Hit.

Paris—United States army officers assisted in the recent French drive against the crown prince to the north of Verdun when positions along a 15-mile front on both sides of the Meuse were wrested from the Germans.

This was the first action in which Americans, as part of the United States army, figured, and the brilliant, smashing, rapid success of General Petain's forces in this section is regarded as a happy augury of future activities of the American army.

The officers who were engaged were more than observers—the United States army has had representatives with the various forces in the field ever since the war started. The American officers formed an actual part of the French fighting units that bounded over the shell-shattered parapets ten minutes after dawn broke, and strode slowly forward toward the pulverized German positions, in the wake of the celebrated "creeping barrage" of artillery fire.

Steel helmets on their heads, revolvers in hand, their field glasses slung around their necks, gas masks handy, and their uniforms crissed of all marks denoting rank, the American officers accompanied the French platoon and battalion leaders, learning at first sight and directly under fire how crack "shock troops" are led into action in a modern offensive.

Although French soldiers fell dead and dying all around them, and a number of French officers were hit also, not one American was even wounded. They advanced from the original French positions south of the Mort Homme, on the left bank of the Meuse and south of Hill 344, on the right bank, clear up to the most advanced trenches captured by the wonderful French infantry.

Order Comes to Charge.

At half past four o'clock in the morning, after waiting all night in the front line positions, they heard the word passed along the trenches by the under officers for the men to get ready. They saw the war-calloused French soldiers shake themselves from slumber in the deep dugouts—sometimes 40 feet underground—where they had been sleeping, unmindful of the hideous uproar occasioned both by their own and the enemy artillery. They saw the "poilus" adjust their long, slender bayonets to their rifles and gingerly feel the hand grenades in the belts around their waists. And then they saw them line up along the firing step of the trench.

At a quarter to five the shrill whistles of the subofficers announced that the infantry attack was on—that the soldiers—mere flesh and blood—had started to finish and clinch the work performed by the thousands of giant guns in the rear.

Almost the first thing the Americans learned was that nowadays troops do not "charge" from trenches at "double quick time." In the first place, the condition of the ground over which the troops must advance is such that they cannot move rapidly. Pitted with shell craters, one to thirty feet deep, gouged with pits caused when monstrous mines were exploded, and knee deep in the most clinging mud in the world, the ground offers every obstacle to rapid moving.

ENGRAVE EMPTY SHELLS FOR THE RED CROSS

French artisans who are serving their country at the front have found a new way of raising funds for the Red Cross. They now utilize the empty shells by polishing the cases and then engraving the most beautiful designs on them. These cases so engraved are sold to souvenir hunters and the proceeds go to the French Red Cross fund. Thus the soldiers are serving their country in a two-fold capacity.

IT MAY BE THERE—IN TONIGHT'S CLASSIFIED ADS

to rattle as they sprayed the terrain ahead, searching for the German gun crew.

Soon a French airplane, then another, circled down from above, lower and lower, as the observers scrutinized the ground. One of the machines had descended to less than 500 feet, when the German machine gun rattled again, and, peering over the top of their shell hole, the French and American officers saw the barrel of the German gun aimed into the air, as the crew ground out leaden bullets against the prying aviator. But the German's very fear of detection gave them away, for a French gun crew to the left had spotted the barrel, too, and in a moment was turning its fire upon the enemy. The airplane had climbed to safety and in a minute was dropping colored flares in the half light of the morning, directing its particular battery where to shoot.

Machine Gun Wrecked.

Almost immediately a big French shell whistled by, plumped against the ground just ahead and exploded, hurling a waterspout of mud and debris high into the air. Another signal and the next shell fell a little to the left. Another signal, and four shells—a salvo from the battery—dropped together around the spot where the German machine gun was emplaced. With a cry, the keen French observers sprang forward from their dugouts, dragging machine guns and accoutrements with them, and crept forward. As they approached the "strong point" where the German gun crew had been they began tossing hand grenades in among the ruins. The exploding bombs completed the wreckage. Then a bit of dirty white—probably a handkerchief—appeared flatteringly above the spot, and the extended arms and the face and body of a German, his gray-green uniform spattered with mud, appeared. The French went forward, the American officers with them, to the spot where the machine gun had been.

All that was left of the concrete and steel "pill box" was some muddled debris, which might have been anything. A little twisted metal, looking for all the world like several smashed up umbrellas, was all that was left of the machine gun. Three of the crew of ten men were alive, and two of them were wounded. The other seven might have been heaps of rags instead of men.

Americans Go Forward.

The American officers continued forward with the French captain and the storming party, which had to hasten as best it could to catch up with the creeping barrage. They passed the third German line of trenches and then two extra lines of support trenches, and then they traversed the zone, criss-crossed with communication and supply trenches, where the German artillery had been emplaced, each gun in its little hidden spot, with room only for the muzzle to protrude. Scattered about, too, were the passages leading to the various underground dugouts, some of them large enough to accommodate 300 soldiers. They found the wreckage of German Red Cross stations advanced dressing points where the wounded were first bandaged. Then they came to the region of shell dumps, reservoirs where ammunition was kept, to be sent forward in little trucks on tiny railroads, down the winding trenches. Past all this and close up against the first trench line of the second German defensive position, they proceeded before they stopped. They had gained all their objectives of the day, and would be in danger of being shelled by their own artillery if they proceeded further.

See More Fighting.

While the French troops remained to consolidate the positions they had won, while they dug communicating passages between the line of shell holes they had decided to occupy and to open up communication trenches with the rear for bringing up supplies and guns, the American officers started back before the enemy's barrage began.

On the way back they saw more fighting; they saw French soldiers bombing treacherous Germans who had come out of their dugouts to fire on them from behind, and they saw long lines of German prisoners being marched down trenches in the direction of the "cages" further back. They saw the "brancardiers," as they call the stretcher bearers, circulating about the terrain, picking up friend and foe alike to be carried back and receive attention at the dressing stations. They saw French soldiers enter German dugouts and come out carrying German stretchers which they had found there. They saw them distribute the stretchers to the German prisoners and let them carry back German wounded.

DESTROYED ORCHARDS WITH "INSECTICIDES"

Meridian, Miss.—In France, when the Germans retreated, they cut down fruit trees. In Mississippi, it is charged, German sympathizers have found an easier means of blasting the fruit producers. Two men were arrested near here charged with selling to fruit growers and farmers insecticide, which, when applied to the trees, killed them. One orchard of 500 peach trees is a total loss. One of 400 trees, three of 100 and two of 500 trees have been badly damaged. The farmers believe German sympathizers are responsible.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Fighters Bound Over.
 "Lefty" Follen and Guy Cliver had a hearing before Mayor R. C.
 Bigbee today on the charge of fighting and disturbing the peace and were bound over to the next grand jury in the sum of $500 bail, which they furnished. The two men had an altercation several nights ago and Cliver was struck with a black jack.
 Follen is an amateur private detective and had given bond to carry concealed weapons.

Work Is Excellent.
 Fishermen are having royal sport at the lake the past few days and some excellent catches have been reported. A number of small-mouth bass have been taken and the Lake Erie have been running in schools.
 Ducks are also reported as being plentiful and the duck hunters around the Garden Spot of Ohio are very numerous.

Drunk Is Fined.
 One lone drunk answered the call of the docket in Mayor Bigbee's co-court this morning. He gave his home as Zanesville but corrected himself a little later by stating that he had shaken the dust of Zanesville off his shoes forever and would henceforth wear allegiance to the Licking capital. He had 60 cents upon his person and was fined $5.00 and the costs and will board it out with Turnkey Robert Francis at the city prison.

CROUP

Enjoyed Their Visit.
 Mrs. W. C. Smith and party of friends drove to Camp Sherman near Chillicothe Sunday and visited the Licking county boys. The party was shown every courtesy by camp officials and inspected a wide area and greatly enjoyed the visit, finding all the boys becoming accustomed to the strenuous duties required of them.

SOME CAMP SHERMAN
MEN GO ELSEWHERE
NEW WAR DEPT. ORDER

Washington, Oct. 9.—Redistribu-tion of the forces in national army cantonments in the south, middlewest and east was ordered today by the war department in order to fill up three national guard divisions in southern states to war strength and to provide for the organization of an additional national army division composed of negro troops.

The national guard divisions to be filled are the Thirtieth, Thirty-first and Thirty-ninth, all composed of troops from the far southern states. Drafted men from the national army cantonments at Camp
 Jackson, Columbia, S. C., Camp
 Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., and camp Pike, Little Rock, Ark., will be transferred to fill the gaps. The remaining men at the three camps will be consolidated at Camp Jackson to compose one national army division.

Surplus white men of the drafted army from Camp Devens at Ayer, Mass., Camp Upton, at Yaphank, N. J.,
 Camp Meade, at Annapolis Junction, Md., and Camp Leo, at Petersburg, Va., will be mobilized at Camp Gordon to form a supplementary national army division composed entirely of men from the far eastern states.

At Camp Pike, Little Rock, Ark., after the consolidation of the southern drafted men, surplus white men from Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O.; Camp Custer, Battle Creek, Mich.;
 Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.; Camp
 Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky.;
 Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Iowa;
 Camp Funston, Fort Riley, Kansas, and Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, will be mobilized to form a supplemental middlewestern division of the national army.

Camp Lewis at American Lake, Washington, is the only one of the sixteen national army cantonments not affected by the order. The negro division will be distributed for training throughout all 16 national army cantonments. It will not be assembled as a division until the eve of its departure for France.

Construction work at the cantonments has progressed to a point where there will be available excess quarters for from one regiment to one brigade of infantry at each camp when the entire first increment of the national army has been mobilized.

The war department now plans to transfer regular army regiments from the expansion posts like Stryker,
 N. Y., Gettysburg, Pa., Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and others to the national army cantonments for the winter months as they will be better protected at the best training camps than in their present quarters.

The re-arrangement creates in effect five so-called "rainbow" divisions of the National army to correspond with the single rainbow division of national guard troops. Four white divisions will represent respectively the south, east, middlewest and far west while the fifth, the negro division, is intended to represent the negro population of the United States as a whole.

Details of the arrangement provide that all negroes mobilized in the southern states shall be trained in cantonments within states from which they come and that at all times there will be a heavy preponderance of white troops in all states.

200 DELEGATES AT DISTRICT MEETING OF RELIEF CORPS

The ninth district meeting of the Women's Relief Corps is being held in Memorial Hall today with the local president, Mrs. Ida Burch of Hebron and the district president, Mrs. Della Thomas of Columbus presiding.

There are about 200 delegates in attendance and five counties are represented, Licking, Franklin, Perry Fairfield and Pickaway, and at noon luncheon was served the visitors in the First Presbyterian church.

The meeting was opened by Mrs.
 Ida Burch, followed by Mrs.
 Thomas of Columbus, and Mrs. Nella Biggs of Columbus, who was the district delegates to the national convention at Boston, read an interesting report of the meeting.

A memorial service, conducted by Mrs. Rachel Kirk of Columbus was held, for the departed members of the district W. R. C. Four members of Lemert Post have died during the past year, among them being the Lemert Post Chaplain, Mrs. Bloomer, who was greatly beloved by the entire post.

Adjournment for the morning was taken following the memorial service and during the afternoon Lemert Post, exemplified the ritual. The reports of the different committees and officers and the election of the district officers completed the remainder of the afternoon's program.

GRANVILLE
 (Special to Advocate.)
 Granville, O., Oct. 9.—Forty men went to work on the Plum street paving job yesterday, and Engineer T. S. Johnson is confident that the contract will be completed in less than a month. It will be but a block in length, but that one block of roadway is badly in need of improvement, being muddy in wet weather, and almost impassable, with its deep gullies and stiff grade. This is the short street whose continuation on the north of College street, is known as Burg street.

The Travelers' club has embarked on the important tour of Central America for its year's study, and the program as announced is most attractive. Monday afternoon the archaeology of the country was featured in the two papers, "Early Man, Religions and Languages," by Mrs. Lillie Prouty, furnished interesting foundation work. "Ancient Cities," by Mrs. A. K. Herrick, gave necessary glimpses into the past of the people with whom the club as a traveling unit will have much to do, during the year. Miss Jennie Roe gave a reading, "City of Copan," which contributed greatly to the engagement of the audience. Mrs. Burton Case presented "Current Events."

Club women of Indianapolis are securing names of men in Fort Benjamin Harrison by means of relatives, belonging to the various clubs of the federation, and a paper was circulated among the Travelers' members yesterday, asking for names and company addresses. A novel feature of this meeting was the air of industry which prevailed, the club having voted last week to employ the two hours, Monday afternoon, in needwork for the A. F. F. W. and Red Cross.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Lovell entertained a party of out-of-town relatives at dinner, Sunday, including their father, J. W. Norris of Frazey-burg; their brother and sister, Mr.
 and Mrs. E. E. Kissell of West Virginia, and others. Covers were laid for fifteen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shank and daughter, and Harold Cook of Oberlin, who motored to Granville for the week-end as guests of the B. C. Belt family, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. F. L. Ferguson, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deeds on a motor trip to Dayton, Friday, where she visited her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Legler, has returned to her home, South Mulberry street.

John W. Hundley, a Denison junior, is one of the secretaries of the Newark Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. W. P. Ullman left this morning for a brief visit in Loudenville, her old home-town.

Mrs. C. B. Newton of Bowling Green, formerly Miss Benedict of the conservatory, who is visiting Mrs. R. S.
 Colwell this week, is meeting a warm welcome from her many friends in the college and town.

Sunday she was the guest of Miss Fannie J. Ferrar in Thresher Hall, and Monday was spent with Mrs. H.
 H. Johnson, Burg street.

Kappa Phi sorority will initiate its pledged members, Saturday night, October 13.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain
 How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sour-ness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestions are not needed in such cases and many do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas, or pain. Bismarck Magnesia in powder or tablet form—never liquid (or milk) is harmless to the stomach inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

SPEED OF TANLAC IMPRESSES ERMAN

Arcade Druggist Comments Upon Brilliant Success Master Medicine Achieved Last Saturday.

Tanlac proved a headliner at Erman's Arcade drug store Saturday.
 At the closing hour, 10 p. m., Druggist Erman remarked: "I say this has been a banner day for Tanlac."

That Tanlac is a strong favorite with dyspeptic, nervous men and women cannot be disputed. Bessie Coner, 109 Jackson street, Newark, says: "I have used Tanlac for stomach trouble with splendid success.
 It has not only relieved me of sour stomach, bloating and palpitation, but my nerves are improved, I sleep better and am a great deal stronger.
 Tanlac also drove away that tired feeling, gave me an appetite and put color in my face. My health's really excellent now."

Tanlac, the new vegetable tonic, stomachic, appetizer, combatant, and invigorator, is being specially introduced at Erman's Arcade drug store.
 Tanlac may also be procured at the Evans' pharmacy, (Warden Hotel block, east side square), Newark and at the Hirsch drug store, Hebron,

SOUVENIR M'KINLEY
GOLD DOLLARS

Congress in 1916 authorized the coinage of one hundred thousand souvenir gold dollars in commemoration of the creation of the Mc-Kinley Birthplace Memorial and for the purpose of aiding in defraying the cost of completing the work.

These coins bear McKinley's likeness on the obverse and a representation of the Memorial on the reverse side. When these $100.00 are distributed no more will be coined.
 This fact alone will add value to their possession and that value will increase as the years go on.

The Memorial Association Trustees have placed with the Vingling Jewelry store, East Park Place, a dozen of these McKinley Memorial Gold Dollars. Mr. Vingling has placed them on display in his window and has agreed to sell them at the price set by the Memorial Association, namely three dollars. Mr.
 Vingling does not ask a cent for handling or selling them, he is doing this simply to help the Memorial Association dispose of the souvenirs.
 They are very beautiful and perfect.

LICKING COUNTY SOLDIER BOYS

The Advocate acknowledges receipt of cash contributions to the soldiers service medal fund from August: Seahaler and E. B. D'Yarmett, Mrs. Deutsch and Elsie Myers, R. D. No. 1, St. Louisville, O.

Dated "somewhere on the Atlantic," Bernard N. Wells of this city, who is on the U. S. S. Delaware, writes to The Advocate acknowledging receipt of his engraved medal, which was mailed to him forty days ago. A postscript to Mr. Wells' letter says: "This is a great life." He writes:

I received the bronze service medal that was sent to me sometime ago, but was delayed in some manner. It certainly is a very pretty one. Thanking you and the people of Licking county a thousand times, I am, respectfully, B. N. Wells, U. S. S. Delaware, care P. M. New York.

Editor of The Advocate—Having received the medal which was sent to me by The Advocate and People back home, in "Old Licking," I wish to thank you very heartily for it, as I appreciate it very much, and will do my all to make Licking county and "Uncle Sam" proud of their boys. Thanking you again I remain, W. G. Davis, Headquarters Co., 136th U. S. P. A., Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala.

Editor of The Advocate—I wish to thank you and the people of Licking county for your kindness and patriotism toward the boys of Old Licking County. I received my medal and prize it very highly. I send my best wishes to the people of Licking county and may God be with them until we meet again. Yours respectfully, Eugene R. Simpson (of Utica), U. S. S. Arkansas, 8th Division, care N. Y. Post Master, N. Y. City.

Editor of The Advocate—Accept my thanks for medal which was presented to us by you. Also thank whoever was responsible for box lunch presented us on train, which was certainly appreciated and enjoyed very much. Yours till we get the Kaiser, James E. Green.

OFFER OF TRIP HOME SPURS SOLDIERS TO INCREASED EFFORT

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Oct. 1.—Major General E. F. Glenn started something when he promised to allow a platoon of the national army men to go on each football trip made by Camp Sherman's representative teams. His proposition was to send the best-drilled and "most military" Cincinnati selects to Cincinnati, the best Columbus men to Columbus, the best Dayton men to Dayton, and so on when the football teams play at those places.

It is another one of the marvels of Camp Sherman to see what the effect has been. Officers are vying with one another to turn out the crack platoons from their representative companies.

Cool weather has stimulated football, basketball, and other outdoor sports. Games that are a part of each day's work are being turned into real contests. Men who have been here two weeks have an added encouragement in seeing what they have learned after watching and helping the late arrivals. The comparison to the onlooker at drills gives a splendid idea of what two weeks intensive drill has accomplished. Five per cent men and 40 per cent men appear veterans of months' schooling compared to the 30 per cent men who came within a week.

An American officer just back from France was an onlooker at drills today and his assertion was that he had seen men in training there two months that could not surpass Camp Sherman selectives.

It was said at headquarters of the 308th Regiment today that the regiment is practically at war strength. The regimental Y. M. C. A. was opened and dedicated yesterday. Four officers who have been with the unit have been transferred. Captain L. M. Pili has been ordered to report to the 20th Regiment at Washington, D. C.; Lieutenant Seavers to Allentown, Pa., for depot work, and Lieutenants Lewis T. M. Ralston and McFarland to go to the 34th Regiment at the Rockford, Ill., cantonment.

A case of smallpox has been discovered on Park street, Chillicothe, and city authorities have warned all citizens to be vaccinated at once. The army men have no fears for the selective draft men for every man in camp is, or soon will be, immune. Chillicothe's war council has asked permission of county authorities to establish an information bureau in the courthouse. Need of one has come with hundreds and hundreds of visitors.

Ministers of the Ross county metropolis are to have a meeting this week to start the ball rolling for some kind of Christmas entertainment arrangements in which churches can aid in spreading the Yuletide spirit.

Field and line officers here swear by Major-General E. F. Glenn, cantonment commandant. They think he's one of the greatest men in the world. There is one lieutenant in particular who all but idolizes the general, even though the general's "regular" spirit caused him to miss an engagement with an entertaining young woman of Chillicothe the other day.

The lieutenant had started to town at a time of day when few taxicabs were patronizing the camp. So it was necessary for him to walk. The lieutenant was walking towards town when suddenly a big car rumbled past.

"Hey there," shouted the lieutenant.

The car stopped and the officer ran up to get a lift into Chillicothe. He took hold of the tonneau door and glanced at the lone occupant in the rear seat.

It was Major General Glenn!

The lieutenant saluted, stopped, stuttered and blushed—and just stood there.

"Well—going to town?" asked the general.

"Yes sir," replied the abashed lieutenant.

"Climb in, then—lets get moving," said the general.

The young officer climbed in, still confused.

"Are you coming directly back?" asked General Glenn.

Although the lieutenant was bent on spending a social evening in the city and was thankful for the ride that would permit him to keep his pledge, he couldn't help but think about his blunder in stopping the general as he had.

"Yes sir, coming right back," he stammered.

And the general waited while his subordinate went inside a store on some pretext, then picked him up and dropped him at the lieutenant's quarters back in camp.

Minnesota newspapers will establish a paper mill.

SUFFRAGE ASSO. ADDS $200 TO WAR FUNDS

The Licking County Equal Suffrage Association has completed the chain of serial parties promoted for the benefit of the war relief fund. The plan was suggested and directed by Mrs. Joseph Sprague. Mrs. Sprague was assisted by a committee of ten members of the local suffrage association, each member of this committee representing one unit of the serial parties. Two of the units were carried on in Granville, so the money raised, thereby, was given to the Granville branch of the A. E. F. W. The remaining eight units were conducted in Newark. The money from these units has been given to the Newark branch of the A. E. F. W. The D. A. R. knitting unit, and Newark branch knitting unit of the navy league. The total amount contributed in this way was $200.

ASSO. CHARITIES IN NEED OF CLOTHING FOR POOR CHILDREN

Europe is not the only place where there are children who need clothing and food. There are many children in this community who cannot go to school because they have not sufficient clothing. Don't let your enthusiasm for war relief work crowd out your interest in things close at hand. This, too, is war relief work, for if the United States is to be an efficient aid to the allies, life at home must be kept as nearly normal as possible. This means people as well as business. Clothing for both children and adults is needed, but especially for children. Contributions of clothing and money can be sent to the Associated Charities, 14 Carroll & Schauss Bldg. Phones, Bell 48; Auto 1653.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHES OVERSUBSCRIBE FUND

New York, Oct. 1.—Final returns, just completed and sent to J. P. Morgan, treasurer of the $5,000,000 pension fund for the support of retired Episcopal clergymen, show that the fund was oversubscribed nearly 75 per cent, total subscriptions amounting to $8,712,000. Of this $5,164,555 has already been paid. Ohio made a contribution of $599,571, of which $568,539 was pledged by 1,060 persons, and $30,972 was given in cash contributions in the churches. In Illinois the total contribution was $242,823, 3,001 persons pledging $201,109 and $41,714 being given in cash contributions in the churches.

The Church Pension Fund is the largest of the kind ever raised, and, next to the Red Cross Hundred Million Dollar Fund, the largest charitable fund ever gathered in America for any one purpose.

RED BLOODED PEOPLE LIVE THE LONGEST

Red blooded people retain their youth and vigor until late in life because red blood ages slowly.

A child with impure blood seems old, while an old man with pure red ironized blood seems young.

Impure blood clogs the system with waste matters, rapidly aging, body, mind and spirit.

Pure blood is red blood, rich in iron and phosphates with power to rid itself of waste matter and able to carry life giving oxygen to every cell and nerve. It makes both young and old, bright, happy, keen, and interested in life. This is the blood you need, every day of your life, the rich red blood made by pure food, fresh air, restful sleep and "Phosphated Iron from the red blood and nerve builder."

Phosphated Iron enriches your blood and nerves putting them in shape for work. Improves your color, increases your appetite and gives you strength, vigor and power to enjoy both work and pleasure, makes you feel like doing things once more.

Phosphated Iron is prescribed by leading doctors for all who are worn out, run down, nervous, weak and thin blooded people in all walks of life, they have learned to depend on it for honest results.

Special Notice—To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to substitute pill or tablets, insist on the genuine, in capsules only.

STORY OF DAMON AND PYTHIAS WILL BE GIVEN BY LODGE

In connection with the work of conferring the rank of page on 12 candidates at the meeting of Newark Lodge, No. 13, K. of P., Thursday evening, a special degree team will handle the dramatic interpretation of the story of Damon and Pythias as it is authorized by the supreme lodge.

This work is used only by a few lodges over the state and can only be seen with considerable trouble and expense to those interested. As it will be rendered by the team of Newark lodge, about 50 members will be required to fill the cast. Some of the finest uniforms used in lodge-work have been secured for this occasion. The fancy drill to be put on by the guard forms a very pleasing incident to the work. The team dressed in the uniforms of ancient Syracuse carries one back from modern times to the days when the friendship of Damon and Pythias formed the sources of the story on which the Knights of Pythias was founded, and makes one feel himself to be a part of the wonderful story being enacted.

Following the lodge-work the banquet committee will give another famous feast.

LADIES WILL TAKE PART

A rally service will be held at the First M. E. Church on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. It is planned to make the event a "get-together" service in the interest of a better attendance at the church services. Robert North will preside and a program of patriotic songs and addresses by several of the laymen will be given. The friends as well as the members of the church are invited to attend.
